Ready to Redefine Finance? Become a Manager in Finance & Performance Management!

We're partnering with an innovative leader in management consulting to find a dynamic Manager – Finance & Performance Management. This is your chance to work on impactful projects, empower businesses with cutting-edge strategies, and be part of a forward-thinking team shaping the future of finance.

Why You Should Join

- Lead Transformation: Take the reins of strategic projects and revolutionise how organisations manage their finances and performance.
- Collaborate with Visionaries: Partner with ambitious clients and talented colleagues to design tailored solutions that truly matter.
- Innovate Every Day: Dive into digital transformation, process optimisation, and analytics – the future of finance starts here.
- Career Growth: Expand your leadership skills, push boundaries, and make your mark in a thriving consulting environment.

What You'll Be Doing

- Driving Change: Lead end-to-end client projects in finance and performance management with a focus on digitalisation and transformation.
- Building Connections: Work closely with clients to understand their needs, identify opportunities, and deliver bespoke solutions.
- Setting New Standards: Apply your expertise in controlling, accounting, and analytics to drive best practices and measurable results.
- Inspiring Teams: Guide and mentor junior consultants, fostering collaboration and excellence.
- Delivering Impact: Use the latest tools and insights to ensure project success and lasting value for clients.

What You'll Bring to the Table

- Experience: 5+ years in consulting or finance roles with a proven track record of delivering complex projects.
- Deep Knowledge: Expertise in controlling, accounting, financial planning, and performance management.
- Digital Savvy: Passion for digital transformation and analytics with a keen eye on emerging trends.
- Leadership: Strong ability to motivate teams and engage stakeholders at all levels.
- Academic Excellence: A degree in business, economics, or a related field.
- Language Skills: Fluent in German and English (French is a bonus).
- Flexibility: Willingness to travel across Europe for client projects.

What Makes This Role Exciting

Our client offers more than just a career – it's a chance to innovate, lead, and make a tangible impact in a supportive and empowering environment. This is your opportunity to work on meaningful projects, collaborate with forward-thinkers, and grow as a leader.
